

Drew Fairley, CPA

Regional Vice President, Retirement Plans

Professional Background

Drew brings over 34 years of financial services industry experience with a wide and varied background to his role at Ameritas. With a unique ability to simplify complex ideas and present them in a clear and compelling manner, Drew has built working relationships that go far beyond providing financial products. Drew's mission is to offer proven retirement solutions for a wide range of qualified plans including 401(k), 403(b), 457(governmental), profit sharing and defined benefit plans that are designed especially for the needs of business owners and their employees. He also specializes in helping financial advisors find opportunities to grow their practice.

Business-Building Services

- Client Seminars and Workshops
- Business-Building Seminars
- Industry and Product Training

Education and Specialized Training

- University of Mississippi, B. Accountancy
- Series 7, 63 & 66 Licensed

Personal Information

Drew resides in Southaven, Mississippi, with his wife, Heather, and their children, Lauren and Madison. He enjoys watching college sports and his children's activities.